Professional Profile

1st Class graduate from the University of Liverpool in Film Studies, with hands-on experience building brands and products from the ground-up. Co-founded tiero, an AI product for students, leading product, design and marketing end to end. My short film 'To Suffocate Smiling' was an official selection at Lift-Off Global Network, produced independently with a self-assembled team on a zero budget. I'm looking for runner, production assistant and production driver roles. I have a full clean UK driving license with experience driving and handling kit.

Education

University of Liverpool | BA in Film Studies | 1st Class Honours

A-Levels (BBB) in Business, Economics, and Media

Experience

- tiero - Co-Founder, Product & Design, 2026-present
 - Building an AI tool that helps university students find graduate jobs and internships. Leading product, design and brand.
 - "To Suffocate Smiling" - Writer/Director, 2025
 - Official Selection, Lift-Off Global Network. Ran the full pipeline from script to colour grade with a self-built crew and no budget, on the strength of my own planning and organisation. Self-taught on DaVinci Resolve and CapCut Pro.
 - boohooMAN - Freelance Assistant, 2023-2025
 - E-commerce production and content for one of the UK's biggest fashion brands. Dealt with handling kit, ensuring smooth shoots and aiding videographers needs on shoot.

Skills

Organisation and planning, from product lifecycles to film production schedules. AI tools (Claude Code and Cowork) to Video Production (DaVinci Resolve and CapCut Pro). Created shot lists and shoot planning in a Milanote, used Excel for tracking budgets, timing and risk assessments. Full UK licence, own transport.

Further Work Experience

Kitchen, hospitality, and delivery roles held throughout school and university, leading teams and showing reliability, multitasking, and a strong work ethic. Before travelling I was a home delivery driver for Sainsburys, Sept 2025 to Jan 2026. Strict drop schedule, daily vehicle safety checks, responsible for a large vehicle and customer facing throughout. Kitchen work from 15 and during university made me used to high pressure, fast-turnaround environments with an emphasis on communication in small teams.

Interests

Solo travelled SE Asia, cooking, football, and film. Always planning the next weekend away or dinner party.
